

The Gordon Highlanders Museum tells the story of a Regiment that Winston Churchill described as “The Finest in the World”

The Museum keeps the memory alive of all Gordon Highlanders so their achievements remain an inspiration for future generations

The Museum is a fantastic community asset for the North East.

The Museum is the only Visit Scotland 5* attraction in Aberdeen.

The Museum provides employment and volunteering opportunities for around 200 people.

The downturn in the local economy in Aberdeen is hurting the Museum very badly

It provides an invaluable resource for local schools – 52 visited last year alone.

The Museum receives no public funding.

The Museum needs £100K a year for the next 3 years

Without the £100K the Museum will have to stop much of what we now do, jeopardising our achievements of the last 20 years.
